

Awning Window Handing Description

Awning windows are hinged at the top of the window. Replacement parts that are noted as handed right are left, are identified by location viewed from interior side of window.

